FLAG DEFINITIONS

Green	Start race
White	One lap left
Green/White	Half way
Checkered	Race is complete
Yellow	Caution
Red	Stop
Waving Black	Disqualified pull of the track
Rolled Black	Warning (depending on how crabby the flag man is you may not get this)
Blue	Move over you are being lapped

FLAG RULES

If you cause a RED (restart) flag you will be sent to the back of the pack

If two or more cars cause a RED (restart) and it is undecided who caused it all cars will be sent to the back

If you cause two RED (restart) flags you will be asked to pull of the track

If you spin out on your own after the first lap is made and no one else is affected only a YELLOW (caution) will be dropped and the race will continue if you are in the way of traffic and the race has to be restarted you will be sent to the back.

If you stall out or hit the bank and are out of the way of traffic the race will continue and you must stay in your car until the end of that race.

If a Blue (being lapped) flag is dropped you must move out of the way and let the leaders pass you.

If you get a black flag and do not pull off the track you will loss all points earned and fee for that race day

BLACK FLAGS

If you get rough out on the track you may or may not get a warning with the black flag, If the flag is rolled up you got lucky and were warned, If the flag is opened and/or waving you are to get off the track and you loss your points for that race.

If your car is leaking fluids you will be black flagged.

If you hit a stuck car that is out on the track after a yellow flag is out you will be black flagged.

If you are a rough Driver you will be black flagged.

If you hit anything that is set on the inside of the race track to prevent drivers from driving there you will be black flagged, This rule does not apply if someone pushes you into that area, than the other driver will be black flagged.

If all four tires leave the track you will be black flagged and will not be able to finish that race.

If you do not get off the track and continue to race you will loss all your points for that day.

If you become a unsafe driver on the track or in the pits you will be black flagged and may be asked to leave and not return for the rest of the season. These rules are final and nonnegotiable

Directors and/or flag men have the right to black flag any driver off the track/lake for any inappropriate behavior.

If for any time the red flag is displayed at the entrance of the track, absolutely no one is allowed on the track. Anyone disobeying this rule will be subject to disciplinary action.

Always be aware of our corner flag men, who will be using the yellow (caution) and red (race has stopped) flags to indicate track conditions during each race.

INAPPROPRIATE DRIVING

Complaints are to be taken to the directors who will deal with the problem as they see fit, if you feel the matter has not been taken care of by the directors we will then have a drivers meeting to resolve the problem(s) any directors-official who are racing in his/her car has no power to remove a driver or take any disciplinary action while they are racing in their car and are subject to the same rules.

All drivers and DRIVERS ONLY having a problem with a call made by the flag man must find an official to accompany them before going to the flag man and discussing any calls made, All discussions must take place before the start of the next race or after the race day, There will be no interrupting the flag man during a race.

Everybody is expected to resolve this in a professional matter so keep any insults or profanity to yourself any driver acting unprofessional will be docked points or may be asked to leave the race track Everybody is out there to have a good time and we are aware that there may be a little rubbing and bumping out on the track and we can't watch everybody all the time but anyone caught practicing inappropriate driving habits like deliberately bulldozing cars out of the way, spinning cars out, smashing into other cars either in the corners or on the straight-away will be black flagged off the track, lose their points for that race and may lose their points for that day, If you continue to be a problem on the track you will not be allowed to finish the season and you will lose all your points and any money invested in the club this rule is non negotiable and will be enforced.

Anyone who is having a problem with another driver out on the track let one of the officials know and we will take disciplinary action as we see fit.
